DETAILED ACTION

1. Claim 6 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite as being a dependent of a canceled claim.

Further, in claim 1, line 2, "scaler converting" should be - - scaler for converting - - .

2. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

3. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

4. Claims 1,2,6,7 and 12 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Thompson (6,681,059).

As per claims 1 and 7, Brown discloses in figure 5 a quantized nonlinear curve scaler including providing a quantized coefficient table (52) having a plurality of sets of n coefficients (see figure 7) with each set of coefficients summing to a normalization value (see figure 8), and applying the sets of coefficients successively to input sample data (data in) by product sum operations (44,46,48 and 54) to obtain resultant scaled data (8) as claimed.

As per claims 2,6, Brown clearly discloses in figure 6, the nonlinear curve approximation of a sinc function remain symmetrical about its centerline.

As per claim 12, Brown also disclose in figure 5, the normalization values being 1 (79) which is an integral power of 2, and each coefficient is an integral factor of.

5. Claim 4 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Brown (6,681,059)

It is noted that Brown does not specifically disclose using a step counter to locate the coefficients in the table. However, the order of coefficients as shown in figure 7 of Brown would be obvious to be accessed by means of a step counter of 8 (1,9,17,25 ...).

6. Claims 10,13 and 14 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Brown (6,681,059) as applied to the claim above, and further in view of Lin (5,287,299).

Brown also discloses in figure 5 a series of latches (40), multipliers (44,46,48) and a second adder (56). It is noted that Brown does not disclose the multipliers being a shift and add multiplier. However, Lin discloses in figure 2 a shift and add multiplier having a first adder (212) and a shifter (204) as claimed. I would have been obvious to a person of ordinary skill in the art to implement the multipliers in Brown by shift and add multiplier as taught by Lin because it would simplify hard ware complexity and reduce the number of shift operation required to effect multiplication (see col.1, lines 8-17).

7. Applicant's arguments have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

8. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
